Vangelis—Blade Runner—YouTube

Arriving 12 years after the release of the film, Vangelis' soundtrack to the 1982 futuristic noir detective thriller Blade Runner is as bleak and electronically chilling as the film itself. By subtly interspersing clips of dialogue and sounds from the film, Vangelis creates haunting soundscapes with whispered subtexts and sweeping revelations, drawing inspiration from Middle Eastern textures ...

Vangelis—Blade Runner (1994, Cassette)—Discogs

This sounds like a really good prog rock album, yet is in fact the stunning complementary musical soundtrack to one of the key films of the eighties, the ravishingly rain-drenched, dystopian Blade Runner, for which Vangelis composed some of his most haunting music.

Vangelis—Blade Runner—Esper Edition—(2002, CDr)—

Whatever the cause of the initial delay, when Scott released his director's cut of 'Blade Runner' in 1994, Vangelis may then have thought it was time to release the soundtrack. "Finding myself unable to release these recordings at the time," is all that Vangelis reveals to us on the disc's sleevevotes. The CD includes some music that did not appear in the movie, but it also includes extracts ...
