One year ago I had bad credit. I was so very frustrated. I did not know how to fix it and everything I did seemed to make it worse. I had been renting for a long time and really wanted to purchase a new home for my family. So I began a one year project to fix my credit once and for all. I did not hire anyone to help, just a lot of research. I will be closing on my new house on April 30th 2015 with really great credit. No one else is on my loan, just me. It was amazing to see banks beg for my business. I wrote this book to help others like me. This books breaks down the mysteries and even contains letters and numbers that you will need to make things right. Good luck to everyone who is reading this and I will see you on the other side!

Williams offers practical legal strategies for increasing one's FICO score and improving credit histories going forward. She points out the too-good-to-be-true credit repair agencies to avoid, and offers real credit repair techniques and alternatives.

A credit report is the record of a borrower ' s/debtor ' s credit history provided by any of the credit reporting agencies. The information located on a credit report is typically provided by an alleged entity or other source claiming to be owed by the alleged borrower/debtor. Negative items listed on your credit report can be very harmful to your commercial experience and can even limit you from being able to rent property or receive additional credit until the negative items are removed from your credit report. This book is intended to teach you how to do just that! Learn how to effectively dispute negative items on your credit report and some very easy loopholes that can be used to ensure a credit card or other applicable debt is completely removed from your credit report regardless of what the alleged credit card issuing company/bank may claim to the credit bureaus.
