An Arab-American novel as delicious as Like Water for Chocolate. Praised by critics from The New Yorker to USA Today for her first novel, Arabian Jazz ("an oracular tale that unfurls like gossamer"), Diana Abu-Jaber weaves with spellbinding magic a multidimensional love story set in the Arab-American community of Los Angeles.

□ Diana Abu-Jaber, Crescent One of the ways this book dances along the romance or chick lit line is Abu-Jaber's lush descriptions of making and eating foods. That statement sounds pejorative, but as much as I liked the Sirine and Han storyline, this food porn might be what I remember longest from the book.

~~Crescent – Diana Abu Jaber – Book Review~~

Crescent is a memoir of her time in Jordan, her fathers homeland and about some of her upbringing in America and the bigotry and ignorance they faced being an inter-cultural family. Its about identity and independence and allowing the Arabian in her to inform the American woman she became.
