Driven compellingly sets forth the authors' scientific theory for understanding human nature and behavior. Lawrence and Nohria conclude that the way we act is a result of the conscious choices we make. These deliberate choices are fueled by the internal battle constantly raging among our four innate, subconscious, brain-based drives:

Driven reveals the scientific foundation for an understanding of human nature and the mysteries of human behavior. "Driven makes a daring leap across disciplinary boundaries to show how recent research in biology sheds light on human nature, and thus social behavior. Social scientists need to pay attention to important works like this."
