Finding the meaning of the second half of life matters a great deal, if the later part of life is going to give us the gift of discovering who it is that we truly are. I don't mean "the" meaning in the second half of life, as if to suggest that there's a single one-size-fits all meaning. Rather, experience from depth psychotherapy and Jungian work suggests that this sense of meaning is something very uniquely personal.

Finding Meaning in the Second Half of Life Summary.
What does it really mean to be a grown up in today's world? We assume that once we "get it together" with the right job, marry the right person, have children, and buy a home, all is settled and well. But adulthood presents varying levels of growth, and is rarely the respite of stability ...
