Gertrude Bell The Arabian Diaries

Gertrude Bell, describes her journey to the desert of Arabia. We are able to admire, through her description, the beautiful landscapes and the way of life of the various tribes. We can also read about her detention at Hayil for several days by Ibn Rachid. The text, is so beautifully written, that the reader, has the impression of travelling, by the side of the author and explores with her, the desert, under the sun, the rain, or the wind. I recommend, warmly this book, to all those, who love travels, the ...
