No one has a better writing style than Jincy Willett, especially when the stories are introduce by David Sedaris. I love the irony of her writing and the unexpected endings.
This is a book that appeals to the "frustrated" women in me. Thank you for republishing Jenny and the Jaws of Life.

Jincy Willett is the high priestess of dark comedy. The classic stories in this collection cut through every convention, every idea of normalcy, with empathy and fearless wit, undermining all the old ideas about the happy family, the good son, the dutiful mother. In Willett's world, perversity...
