Step 1: Creating the "base" of the Helmet The first step is to create the basic shape of the helmet. To do this first we cut strips of cardboard about an 1.5" tall and 14" in length. Use two of these strips to create a circle around your forehead with enough room to spare to fit comfortably and hot glue them together..

The helmet is for a 12 inch figure (for stop motion animation). So we start by fitting some strips of cardboard to the figures head. From here we can flesh out the helmet, add some nice shapes to it with cardboard and secure it all together with masking tape. The horns are simply twisted pieces of brown paper.
