An essential volume for generations of writers young and old, Bird by Bird is a modern classic. This twenty-fifth anniversary edition will continue to spark creative minds for years to come. For a quarter century, more than a million readers—scribes and scribblers of all ages and abilities—have been inspired by Anne Lamott ' s hilarious, big-hearted, homespun advice. Advice that begins with the simple words of wisdom passed down from Anne ' s father—also a writer—in the iconic passage that gives the book its title: “ Thirty years ago my older brother, who was ten years old at the time, was trying to get a report on birds written that he ' d had three months to write. It was due the next day. We were out at our family cabin in Bolinas, and he was at the kitchen table close to tears, surrounded by binder paper and pencils and unopened books on birds, immobilized by the hugeness of the task ahead. Then my father sat down beside him, put his arm around my brother ' s shoulder, and said, ‘ Bird by bird, buddy. Just take it bird by bird. ’ ”

Discover the excellent writing your students can produce when provided with a rubric and challenged to do their best.

From New York Times bestselling author and world-renowned scientist Jane Goodall, as seen in the National Geographic documentary Jane, comes a fascinating examination of the critical role that trees and plants play in our world. Seeds of Hope takes us from Goodall's home in England to her home-away-from-home in Africa, deep inside the Gombe forest, where she and the chimpanzees are enchanted by the fig and plum trees they encounter. She introduces us to botanists around the world, as well as places where hope for plants can be found, such as The Millennium Seed Bank. She shows us the secret world of plants with all their mysteries and potential for healing our bodies as well as Planet Earth. Looking at the world as an adventurer, scientist, and devotee of sustainable foods and gardening--and setting forth simple goals we can all take to protect the plants around us--Goodall delivers an enlightening story of the wonders we can find in our own backyards.

With the Tao of Composition, no longer does producing a paper become a tedious process filled with endless redundancies and plagiarism. Now students can learn and apply a basic organizational structure to their writing without wondering how to construct the basic elements of any academic essay. No longer will you have to sit in front of the computer the night before the paper is due and regurgitate stream-of-consciousness drivel connected loosely with evidence.

Introduces and describes the writing menu system of encouraging students to become successful writers, researchers, and presenters; discussing the rationale for writing menus, planning, points, layout, and selections; with handouts, writing prompts, activities, and other aids.

students how to deftly research and write about sociology.

Learning to evaluate sources is a key part of beginning to write research papers. Information gathered from relevant informational books and websites makes a well-written paper more authoritative. Using the Common Core standards and understandable explanations, the main content takes readers through the writing of research papers, from conceptualization of the topic to a strong conclusion. An emphasis on outlining, transitions, and word choice aids readers in making their point clearly. Full-color photographs and fun fact boxes enliven a language arts topic that can be used in classes of all k.

The rationale behind Writing the Research Paper--Pocket Guide, is essentially a simple one: the typical student reaches college having written perhaps a dozen research papers and is familiar enough with the broad convention of the form to neither need nor want a big book on the research paper. Instead, what the student needs is a handy summary of research paper protocol that can be easily consulted. All its explanations should be brief, helpful, and to the point. Its examples should be pointed and illustrative, covering major matters rather than minor ones. That, in a nutshell, is the idea behind this book.

'A comprehensive, well-written and beautifully organized book on publishing articles in the humanities and social sciences that will help its readers write forward with a first-rate guide as good company.' - Joan Bolker, author of Writing Your Dissertation in Fifteen Minutes a Day 'Humorous, direct, authentic ... a seamless weave of experience, anecdote, and research.' - Kathleen McHugh, professor and director of the UCLA Center for the Study of Women Wendy Laura Belcher's Writing Your Journal Article in Twelve Weeks: A Guide to Academic Publishing Success is a revolutionary approach to enabling academic authors to overcome their anxieties and produce the publications that are essential to succeeding in their fields. Each week, readers learn a particular feature of strong articles and work on revising theirs accordingly. At the end of twelve weeks, they send their article to a journal. This invaluable resource is the only guide that focuses specifically on publishing humanities and social science journal articles.
