Debbie Macomber - Wikipedia

The Christmas basket is a short feel-good Christmas story. It is a quick read with plenty of laughs. The mothers and their antics to outperform each other are hilarious. They were more fun to read about than the two main characters. This story is very easy to read and can be read in an afternoon or evening. Debbie Macomber is great at what she does.

Debbie Macomber has never disappointed me. "The Christmas Basket" is a delight in every way! You will laugh out loud at some of the situations in which two of the main characters get themselves involved. But you will also be touched by the stories of love, of a man & woman, and that rare thing called true friendship. Great read!

Typical Debbie Macomber book, taking issues in real life and including them into a love story. I'd read Christmas Basket as a separate book years ago but it was good to read again as part of this small anthology. Both stories are well written, captivate the reader, and gets you into the holiday spirit.
