Twenty Yawns by Jane Smiley - Goodreads

Twenty Yawns is a delightful story of a day in a young girl's life. Lucy goes to the beach with mom and dad, and returns home deliciously sleepy, only to realize that she needs something in particular to help her to fall asleep. What she needs, and how she finds it, is typical of young children the world over.

TWENTY YAWNS by Jane Smiley ; illustrated by Lauren Castillo · RELEASE DATE: April 1, 2016 After a day at the beach, Mom, Dad, and Lucy are tired. But when the moon shines through her window, and everything looks mysterious, Lucy is suddenly wide awake.

TWENTY YAWNS | Kirkus Reviews

Castillo's ( Yard Sale) spreads call up just the right sense of moonlit otherworldliness. Her signature soft black outlines unite the beach prelude with the main nighttime story, and she quietly embraces diversity by making Lucy's family biracial. As a bonus, readers can search for the title's twenty yawns. Ages 3-7.
